About The Pregnancy Support Centre: BridgeWay Program:

PSC is a non profit Christian organization in Brandon, MB. Our mission is to bring hope and healing to women and families in Westman. Our programming is geared toward providing material goods to clients to ease the financial burden of raising children, emotional & educational support for women experiencing an unexpected pregnancy, parenting support, and post abortion grief support. The BridgeWay program is a transitional housing program for single mothers who are wanting support and community while they learn and grow into strong independent women. It includes housing and programming geared to supporting independence, building positive relationships, parenting skills, and employability skills. It is a holistic approach that has a wrap around model of support.

About the Role:

The Support Worker is responsible for working with participants in their homes as well as activities related to BridgeWay operations, under the direct supervision of the Housing Director.

Skills Needed:

- Ability to communicate clearly
- Basic computer skills
- Work Independently
- Strong empathy skills
- Knowledge of and experience caring for babies, children, and postpartum mothers.
- Knowledge of Indigenous perspectives would be beneficial.

Responsibilities:

- Build relationships with the participants, to help provide stability in post natal support and parenting.
- Support participants in daily living tasks, light housekeeping, transportation, and life skills as needed.
- Record client meetings on database
- Report daily to the Housing Director
- Light administrative tasks for BridgeWay
- Activities related to the management and operation of the housing program.
